Purple Martins in Trial Flight; Anti-Drug Phone

Mrs. Elbert May, 703 W. Sixth St., phoned our office Monday to report she saw about 150 purple martins over her house at noon and said all indications were that the birds were massing for the return migration to South America.

Could be, but it's doubtful this early in the season.

More likely it's a case of a few adult martins shepherding this year's crop of young birds on a navigational or shakedown flight before the actual migration begins. My information is that the young birds are taken on a swing northward through Illinois and eastward over Tennessee, on a total flight of about two weeks.

If this be true, then the actual migration would begin near July 1. My schedule of departures seems to prove the navigational explanation given above. My birds leave their two boxes usually about July 4.

I have had this further experience. Sometimes the boxes would be deserted a couple of weeks early—then a veritable army of martins would reappear. They had completed flight training of the youngsters and were ready for the long haul to South America. A day or two later the boxes would be silent—and would remain empty until the following February or March.

Martins spend four months here, four months in South America, and four months on the roundtrip between continents. They follow the insect supply, which waxes here in a few weeks but is just beginning in the opposite season south of the Equator.

A note from Bethel B. Larey, U.S. attorney for the Western District of Arkansas, reminds me that if you happen to get a lead on a heroin pusher or other illicit drug dealer there is a "hot line" telephone number you may use to call in your information. Larey reports:

"The hot line telephone number, 800-368-5363, is manned around the clock. Calls are toll free. Operators are supervised by experienced federal agents; a caller need not identify himself and all their rights are fully protected."

Sometimes we receive mail for the Letters to the Editor column in the closing days of a political campaign and we discard them. There is no way of knowing whether they are genuine complaints or politically-motivated. Therefore in the interest of justice we are compelled to restrict comments to statements of the actual candidates.

Otherwise one side would be in the unfair position of spending money for advertising and speech releases while the other side got a free ride through a letter-writing campaign.

Murder Trial Set Aug. 15

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The first-degree murder trial of Douglas Wayne Burton has been set for Aug. 15 in the shooting death of Bobby Dale Johnson, 28.

Burton pleaded innocent Monday before Circuit Court Judge Richard B. Addison.

Burton, a former resident of North Little Rock, was apprehended May 6 at a Little Rock club after being charged in a federal warrant with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

Johnson was fatally shot April 12 in a Little Rock bar.

Anti-Satellite Missiles Proposed

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Defense Department has decided to study the feasibility of a killer satellite system capable of intercepting, inspecting and destroying hostile space vehicles. The Soviet Union already has demonstrated this capability.

The Air Force space and missile systems organization in Los Angeles asked industry on May 26 to submit proposals on the system. At least three companies are expected to be selected to conduct competitive studies.

If defense officials decide on the basis of the studies to develop a satellite destroyer, it is believed subsystem testing could start next year, aiming for a test launch in 1975 or 1976.

If interceptor satellites are built, they would be able to fly alongside an alien spacecraft, determine its assignment and, if necessary, disable or destroy it.

Arms Must Be Continued, Laird Warns

WASHINGTON (AP) — Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird says Congress can safely approve the Moscow arms-limitation accords only if the United States continues weapons development and modernization.

"If we stand still, this would be a grave mistake," Laird told two congressional committees Monday.

"This is an interim freeze on numbers only," the secretary said, adding that limits on weapons modernization and development are possible in the followup negotiations expected to continue through the next five years.

"The way to succeed in the negotiations is to be strong when you enter them," Laird said.

Laird testified Monday before Appropriations committees of the House and Senate and planned closed sessions today with the two Armed Services panels.

As the negotiations continue, he said, development of such weapons as the B1 bomber, Trident submarine and site defenses for Minuteman missile launchers must not stop.

Laird said the only budget savings from the arms-limitation agreement will be from unbuilt defensive antiballistic missiles—ABMs—a total of about $5 billion over the next five years.

While the offensive-arms agreement freezes Russia with 1,618 ICBMs—long-range missiles—against 1,054 for the United States and with more Soviet than American submarines and submarine missile launchers, the United States retains technical superiority in deployment, Laird said.

Laird asked Congress Monday to increase a limitation on expenditures for military assistance for American allies in Southeast Asia from $2.5 billion to $2.7 billion for the current fiscal year ending June 30.

He said the month-old North Vietnamese offensive will cost the United States an extra $3.3 billion if continued through September and $5 billion through December to keep up air and naval operations.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The old adage about an army traveling on its stomach apparently has fallen into disfavor with Gen. William C. Westmoreland. He has ordered his troops to literally trim the fat from the ranks.

U.S. Army commanders around the world were told in no uncertain terms last week to make frequent checks of everyone in their units to find those "who are becoming obese, and commence corrective action."

The new regulations issued by some sort of a "death ray," perhaps a laser beam; by signals that would disrupt the payload's electronics, or by blowing up the American satellite, destroying both payloads.

Satellite explosion is the technique used by the Russians. Since 1968, the Soviets have successfully demonstrated their spacecraft killer system at least seven times, according to U.S. sources.

These sources say the successful tests involved 12 separate launches of Cosmos satellites. Five were target satellites and seven were pursuit payloads that flew near their quarry. After an inspection, five of the interceptors blew apart on radio signal from the ground.

When President Nixon and Soviet Communist party leader Leonid Brezhnev signed the nuclear arms limitation treaty last month, they said on-site inspection was not necessary, that spy satellites could do the job.

The Soviet Union has an operational space weapon the Study Grants Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — Work study grants to help about 286 Arkansas college students have been approved by the Office of Education.

The six grants total $57,300. The schools and the grants are: College of the Ozarks, $30,000; Southern Baptist College, $10,000; Westark Junior College, $5,000; University of Arkansas at Little Rock, $5,000; Red River Vocational Technical School at Hope, $5,000 and University of Arkansas at Monticello, $2,300.

McGovern Visits the Governors

By GREGG HERRINGTON
Associated Press Writer

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — In a bid for party unity, presidential front runner George McGovern met with Democratic governors early today and said his campaign will be one of cooperation and reconciliation rather than divisiveness.

The South Dakota senator altered his campaign schedule and flew into this sprawling Southeast Texas city late Monday night for a meeting with the Democratic governors, most of whom have remained neutral or opposed to McGovern's candidacy.

When the meeting was over, most of the Southern chief executives were still voicing doubts or opposition to McGovern, claiming his candidacy would assure Southern strength for President Nixon and other GOP office-seekers in November.

But McGovern, whose liberal views on several issues have been an issue among Democratic governors attending the annual bipartisan National Governors' Conference here, apparently did not hurt his cause by showing up.

"I think it was good that he came," Georgia Gov. Jimmy Carter said in an interview. "The best point was just the fact that he left California and

Get the Fat Off, Says Army

By Westmoreland, the Army chief of staff, could lead to eventual dismissal or early retirement for overweight GIs—and Army women—who fail to shed the extra pounds. A spokesman said there has been no change in the Army's standards, just a new emphasis "reflecting concern for the health and welfare of the military population and the need to maintain a reasonably fit army."

No one will be tossed out of the service just for being overweight. But the regulations say that

United States does not possess the fractional orbital bombardment system (FOBS). In several tests in recent years the Soviets have demonstrated that a FOBS rocket is capable of hurling a nuclear bomb into a low earth orbit and that it can be called in on an earth target in less than one global pass.

But if it were used, the action would be a violation of a U.N. treaty prohibiting the placing of nuclear weapons in space.

In 1960, the Defense Department began developing a satellite interceptor under Project Saint. This was abandoned in 1962 for financial and technical reasons. Instead, the United States developed a landbased antisatellite system at Johnson Island in the Pacific.

The system still is in operation, but the rockets are obsolete by today's standards and they would be relatively ineffective against today's highly maneuverable satellites.

Welfare Costs Drop 5th Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's welfare costs dipped in January for the fifth time in six months, although 60,000 more persons joined relief rolls, according to government figures released today.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare said unpredictably lower costs for providing medical care to the poor resulted in the $12.4-million decrease from the previous month.

Cash payments in January rose nearly $1.7 million for a total monthly welfare bill of $1.54 billion.

Previous monthly welfare-cost decreases of $15 million in August, $10 million in September, $19 million in November and $1.3 million in December were more than offset, however, by a $100-million hike in October.

Welfare rolls were expanded in January, latest month for which figures are available, by addition of 43,000 persons receiving aid to families with dependent children—AFDC—11,000 in the disabled category and another 11,000 receiving nonfederal general assistance.

The expanding AFDC program also came in for review on Capitol Hill Monday when the Senate Finance Committee tentatively adopted a new federal-state financing plan with emphasis on keeping down the number of AFDC recipients.

When combined with changes in three adult welfare programs—the aged, blind and disabled—the plan would save the states $5 billion through 1974, said committee Chairman Russell B. Long, D-La.

Long said a primary feature of the program would be a freeze on how fast the federal share of AFDC payments could rise in proportion to population. That would encourage the states to trim their welfare rolls.

Meanwhile, in its January report HEW also said the number of elderly welfare recipients dropped by 5,000.

The report does not include current welfare figures for California, New Jersey and Vermont.

"Insincere, sporadic, or evasive performance in weight-reduction or physical-fitness programs may provide substantial evidence of conditions justifying separation for unsuitability."

The Army's heavyweights will have a chance to slim down. If their problem is attributable to nonmedical causes, they will be placed on a medically supervised weight-reduction program. But if calorie-counting doesn't work, they will be ineligible for re-enlistment, the Army said.

Housing Unit for County Rejected

Housing Authority of the County of Hempstead was found not acceptable to HUD, Mike Kelly, executive director of Hope Housing Authority, said today.

The recently formed Housing Authority of the County of Hempstead presented the transcript to the area office of HUD in Little Rock.

They were unable to accept it due to the fact that in 1940 thirteen counties in Southwest Arkansas formed an entity known as the Southwest Arkansas Housing Authority. They were issued a preliminary loan for $19000.00 plus and never produced any housing. The loan is still outstanding plus 3 per cent interest. Hempstead was one of the counties and therefore was not acceptable for a new Authority.

It would take considerable work to dissolve the Southwest Housing Authority and pay off or get the debt cancelled.

In the meantime those incorporated towns in the County that want Public Housing can request the Housing Authority of the City of Hope to act in their behalf.

There was a great amount of enthusiasm toward the County Authority and now some disappointment in the turn of events. However as stated above those towns that wish to pursue the issue should contact the Housing Authority of the City of Hope.

Would Investigate Reporters

CHICAGO (AP) — Mayor Richard J. Daley, one of the Democratic party's most powerful leaders for two decades, also is known for his humorous and caustic quips which often mingle with his syntax at news conferences.

In his latest meeting with the press Monday, the mayor suggested that some reporters should be investigated by the federal government and that one newsman "ought to get off the chair."

After Daley led off the conference with an announcement that the city was cutting expenditures, a reporter asked about the public's concern over taxes.

"All you have to do is sit in this office and read the letters that come in and know that the elderly people on pension—and if you don't know, you ought to get off the chair!"

Later, another reporter asked about a story that said the Internal Revenue Service was in-

Celebrates Marriage In Reverse

BOLTON, Mass. (AP) — The occasion was accented with the traditional extras—a three-tiered wedding cake, inscribed matchbooks, gift-bearing guests and a little graffiti on the car.

But David W. Durrant's celebration was far from traditional—ask the 60 friends he invited to a "wedding in reverse" to celebrate his divorce.

The wedding cake was topped with black icing and a tiny plastic groom on top, but without a bride.

Four guests arrived in a stripped down antique car with "Just Divorced" painted on the side.

On the back of the car, where the trunk used to be, was a large suitcase labeled "Divorce Case."

The gifts were divorce specials—a "his" towel without a mate, a single frying pan and a lone egg, and a single tea cup. Durrant and his wife were married in their native England seven years ago but have been separated about two years before the divorce came through.

It's a celebration of freedom, the 29-year-old interior designer said.

2 Races on Ballot for Runoff

Hempstead County Democratic Central Committee met Friday, June 2, in Hope City Hall courtroom to certify the vote of May 30 Preferential Primary and to draw candidates names for position on the June 13 run-off ballot.

Two races will be on the Hempstead County ballot; For U. S. senator and for Hempstead County Judge.

The general primary ballot will look like this:

For U. S. Senator
(Vote for one)
John L. McClellan
David Pryor

For County Judge
(Vote for one)
Carter Sutton
Finis Odum

Judges and clerks who served in the May 30 primary are asked to serve again on June 13 except in certain precincts where the Central committeeman has selected other election officials, because of illness, vacation, etc.

The Central Committee will meet again on Friday, June 16, at 2 p.m. in City Hall courtroom to certify the vote of June 13.

Hempstead County Convention will be held on Monday, June 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the courtroom. Democrat state convention will be Saturday, June 24, in Barton Coliseum in Little Rock, beginning at 12 noon.

Connally's World Trip Stirs Rumors

By DON McLEOD
AP Political Writer

WASH. GTON (AP) — With the Republican convention little more than two months away, President Nixon has stoked speculation about his 1972 running mate by sending John Connally around the world.

Indications from the White House that Connally might also be explaining to world leaders the President's Peking and Moscow trips add to the importance of the trip and to the outgoing Treasury secretary's stature as bearer of such news.

This is the kind of mission traditionally handled by a vice president if not a secretary of state. The Washington rumor mills have Connally available for either post if Nixon is re-elected. Regardless, the trip

Preferential Vote Today in California

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
AP Political Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Voting got off to a brisk start today in California's vital primary with Sen. George McGovern rated the favorite to capture the state's 271 delegates and take a big step toward winning the Democratic presidential nomination.

In the first hour after the polls opened at 7 a.m., about 3 per cent of the voters had voted in Los Angeles County. Election officials predicted 70 per cent of the county's 3,233,825 registered voters would cast ballots. The polls were scheduled to close at 8 p.m.

It was warm, muggy and overcast in much of California.

Presidential primaries also were being held in New Jersey, New Mexico and South Dakota with McGovern expecting to take a majority of their 144 delegates.

In New Jersey, early turnout reports appeared to confirm predictions that about 840,000 voters would cast ballots there.

In South Dakota, election officials said they expected about 150,000 persons or about half of the state's eligible voters to go to the polls.

Weather was mostly clear in New Mexico and voting around the state was described as light to moderate.

"I'm going to predict here this afternoon we'll win all four of the primaries," McGovern told several thousand cheering supporters in Albuquerque, N.M., Monday before flying to Houston, Tex., to confer with Democratic governors.

Success in the four primaries could shoot McGovern's delegate total past the 850 mark—1,509 are needed to nominate—and virtually end Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey's hopes of winning the Democratic nomination for the second time.

If Humphrey defeats McGovern in California, however, McGovern's surge toward the nomination would be halted and the presidential race would be thrown wide open with Humphrey as the new front runner. Both men have predicted the California winner will capture the nomination.

Besides the presidential primaries, voters in Montana and Mississippi are choosing candidates for state and congressional posts. Sens. Lee Metcalf, D-Mont., James O. Eastland, D-Miss., and Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., are all expected to win re-nomination.

Double Duty For Thornton

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Ray Thornton will be spending the next seven months juggling the duties of the state attorney general's office and congressman-designate from the 4th District. Thornton defeated three others in last week's primary for the Democratic nomination for Congress. He has no Republican opposition in the November election.

"The main thing will be to continue to work in the attorney general's office to carry forward the programs of that office," Thornton said.

"... And, of course, I will be continuing to work, as I've done during the campaign, to develop programs for the 4th District. I hope to be in a position to move strongly toward effective programs for the district."

Thornton said he planned to look into the committee assignments he might draw when he goes to the U.S. House next year. He said appointment to the Appropriations Committee probably was the most desirable, but that among other committees important to his district were the committees dealing with agriculture and interstate commerce. He said he would seek assignment to committees important to the district.

100 Boats Knocked Out by Bombers

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — American fighter-bombers knocked out more than 100 supply boats Monday in the most damaging attack on North Vietnam's inland waterways since the resumption of full-scale bombing two months ago, the U.S. Command said today.

U.S. officials said that with its harbors mined, its two railroads to China cut and much of its highway system severed, Hanoi was turning more to small craft and barges to move supplies. But one senior U.S. official said America's air forces were successfully countering this.

The biggest kill was claimed by Navy pilots from the carrier Coral Sea, who reported destroying or damaging 69 water craft. Most were caught on the Song Ca River and tributaries two miles from the coast near the city of Vinh, a major transshipment point 160 miles south of Hanoi and 145 miles above the demilitarized zone.

The U.S. Command said more than 220 strikes were flown across North Vietnam Monday.

In South Vietnam, the Saigon command said government troops and supporting U.S. planes continued to battle North Vietnamese troops holding out in the northern part of Kontum in the central highlands.

A South Vietnamese spokesman at Pleiku claimed that by dusk Kontum has been entirely cleared of North Vietnamese troops, but other sources said some snipers might be left in the city.

The Saigon command said that fighting continued at a low level on the two other major fronts, the northern front above Hue and the southern front at An Loc, 60 miles north of Saigon.

Spokesmen said that less than 300 rounds of shellfire hit An Loc during the 24-hour period ending at dawn today, the lowest number of rounds since North Vietnamese forces laid siege to the city April 7.

Angela Receives Death Threats

By EDITH M. LEDERER
Associated Press Writer

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Angela Davis has been deluged by hundreds of congratulatory telegrams and phone calls praising her acquittal. But she also has received about 20 death threats, a spokesman said.

The 28-year-old black Communist spent Monday swimming in nearly 100-degree heat, taking a sauna bath and discussing vacation plans, spokeswoman Stephanie Allan said.

The all-white jury of seven women and five men acquitted Miss Davis Sunday or murder, kidnap and conspiracy charges stemming from a 1970 courthouse escape attempt in which a judge and three others were killed.

Relaxing at her San Jose apartment on her first day of freedom in 22 months, the tall, attractive militant said she hadn't made any firm decision about the future.

Miss Allan said the telegrams of congratulations from across the nation and throughout the world far outnumbered the hate calls and death threats.

One telegram came from San Quentin inmate Fletta Drumgo, one of the two surviving Soledad Brothers.

Drumgo said: "Dear sister and comrade. Anticipated victory. Revolutionary love and sol-

More Hot Weather Expected

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Northwest Arkansas was the only section of the state that escaped scorching temperatures Monday. More hot weather was expected in the state today.

Central Arkansas had a record-breaking temperature of 97 recorded at Little Rock. The National Weather Service said the old record high for June 5 was 96 set in 1958. The remainder of the state with the exception of the northwest also recorded temperatures in the mid 90s. Fayetteville had a high of 88 and Harrison recorded 89 for the coolest spots in the state.

Partly cloudy skies were expected again today with a few scattered showers by late afternoon in the northern half of the state. The moisture level in the state is still very low and the Weather Service said any showers that developed would be light and of little consequence.

Temperatures this morning were slightly higher than Monday morning with readings in the 60s in the northwest to near 70 in the northeast and south-west.

Overnight lows included 60 at Fayetteville, 66 at Harrison, 70 at Jonesboro, 67 at Pine Bluff, 68 at Texarkana, 64 at Little Rock, and 61 at Fort Smith.

No precipitation was reported during the 24-hour period ending at 7 a.m. today.

Philippines Query U.S. on Bases

MANILA (AP) — The Philippines asked the United States Monday how long it intends to use its five military bases in the islands. The request was a prelude to renegotiation of the bases agreement.

Foreign Secretary Carlos P. Romulo handed U.S. Ambassador Henry Byroade a note also asking whether the United States has installed or intends to install intermediate or long-range ballistic missiles at either of the two major bases—Clark Air Force Base, 45 miles north of Manila, and the Subic Naval Base, 50 miles northwest of the capital.

The U.S. also has three other bases on the islands. Byroade also called on President Ferdinand E. Marcos who told him the Philippines is ready for high-level talks to renegotiate the agreement.

The current 25-year agreement expires in 1991. However, Marcos has indicated that because of the rapidly changing superpower alignments in the wake of President Nixon's visits to Peking and Moscow, he would like to see the United States give up the bases earlier.

came here. It showed he was concerned.

But Carter, generally identified as the leader of the anti-McGovern forces among the Democratic governors, said, "I really can't say that my attitude toward him has changed."

McGovern, in a closed meeting with 22 Democratic governors, promised to oppose "frivolous" challenges to convention delegates by his supporters. He said he would not rule out the possibility of naming a Southerner as his vice presidential runningmate should he win the presidential nomination.

He named Gov. Reubin Askew of Florida during the closed meeting. In a subsequent news conference he said Rep. Wilbur D. Mills of Arkansas also would be a possibility.

Carter, a critic of McGovern's proposed 40 per cent cut in the U.S. defense budget, said he was interested in the senator's view that the country would actually be stronger under his spending plan because waste in unnecessary defense programs would be eliminated.

But despite McGovern's appraisal of the meeting and favorable comments from some anti-McGovern Northern governors, the South Dakotian still faced solid opposition from some Democratic governors.

Gov. Wendell Ford of Kentucky said, "I don't see that we can come close to electing him...in Kentucky. He didn't change anybody's mind."

Gov. Robert W. Scott of North Carolina said, "Many governors had their own views when they went in there and McGovern didn't change them particularly."

Humphrey was scheduled to meet with Democratic governors here Wednesday, the last day of the conference, and Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine was reported considering making an appearance.

WASHINGTON (AP) — George S. McGovern has pushed his nationwide total of delegates to the Democratic National Convention to 537 1/2.

And as the South Dakota senator waited today for the outcome of the California primary with its 271 delegate votes at stake, the prospect was that victory would bring him delegates committed to Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine.

The 62 Illinois delegates committed to Muskie may switch if McGovern wins decisively in California, Angelo Geocaris, Muskie's Illinois chairman, said Monday.

Sources said the switch could occur even if Muskie asks the delegates to stand firm.

McGovern added delegates over the weekend in Oklahoma, Kentucky, Connecticut, Colorado and Illinois in caucuses and conventions, plus a couple in the official Nebraska caucus.

Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama stands second in the delegate count going into the July 10 convention with a total of 318.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota is third in the count with 299 1/2. Muskie has 166 and there are 449 1/2 uncommitted,

Insurance Rebate Expected

BOSTON (AP) — The Massachusetts Supreme Court has cleared the way for state motorists to receive a 2.6 per cent rebate on premiums charged for compulsory bodily injury automobile accident insurance in 1971-the first year of no-fault insurance.

The court upheld Monday an order by state Insurance Commissioner John G. Ryan that the companies make such a rebate. At the time he ordered the companies to set aside a special reserve of 35 per cent of the premiums earned on compulsory insurance in 1971.

No-fault, initially applicable only to bodily injury coverage, went into effect in Massachusetts in January 1971. The legislature has since extended the no-fault principle to property damage automobile insurance.

Last December, at the same time he ordered the companies to establish the 35 per cent reserve, Ryan announced that premium rates for bodily injury coverage in 1972 would be reduced by 2.6 per cent.

In its unanimous opinion, the court said Monday:

"We find nothing discriminatory or unconstitutional in the reducing of the premium rates for the current year in the amount of the excessive premiums charged in the previous year."

The adjustment of 1972 rates for excessive profits in 1971 as part of a rate-making procedure is no different from using experience of previous years to determine the rate to be set for the future.

The insurance industry had contended that the refund order amounted to an unconstitutional taking of property and an unconstitutional impairment of the obligations of contract.

Folk Mass Celebrated At Kennedy Grave

By ANN BLACKMAN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 100 Kennedys, friends and followers gathered on the granite terrace at the grave of Robert F. Kennedy today to remember him with prayers, flowers and songs on the fourth anniversary of his death.

Many who came for the hour-long folk mass made their way through the early morning mist to the grave of President John F. Kennedy several hundred feet away.

The mass began with guitars and singers who sent the notes of "We Shall Overcome" and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" over the somber reaches of Arlington National Cemetery across the Potomac from the federal city.

The mass was celebrated by the Rev. Albert F. Pereira, pastor of St. Luke's Roman Catholic Church in McLean, Va., the Washington suburb where Kennedy's widow and children live, and by Msgr. Geno C. Baroni, director of the National Center for Urban Affairs in Washington.

Some 15,000 people did their remembering Monday, the anniversary of the day in 1968 when he was shot down by an assassin, by climbing the grassy hillside to the grave across the Potomac from the federal city.

It was June 5 four years ago, in another presidential election year, that the New York senator was shot shortly after he was declared winner of California's presidential will give Connally public exposure in the foreign-policy arena. Among his stops will be South Vietnam.

Nixon's announcement Monday that Connally will represent him on a 15-nation tour beginning today came a day after another key Republican said it is possible a Democrat, such as Connally, could get the GOP vice-presidential nomination.

House Republican leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan said Sunday in a radio interview that he disagrees with Vice President Spiro T. Agnew's assertion that a Democrat on the GOP ticket in his place would be inconceivable.

With the time of decision drawing near, Nixon has never said whether he will keep Agnew as his vice president, and Connally has not definitely been taken out of the picture.

White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said in Key Biscayne, Fla., that Connally will be ready to take up "any subject which his hosts wish to raise," including Nixon's trips to China and the Soviet Union.

The complete itinerary has not been announced. Connally's first stops will be in Venezuela, Colombia, Brazil, Argentina, Bolivia and Peru. To follow will be visits to South Vietnam, Australia, Singapore and New Zealand.

Connally said when he resigned last month that he had no political aspirations, but, when asked about the vice presidency, he ducked "that kind of speculation at this point in time."

Two days later, Agnew said it would be "totally unrealistic to expect the Republican convention to accept" Connally on its national ticket.

The closest Nixon has come to addressing the subject directly was in a television interview last winter when he said he saw no reason to break up a winning combination.

Approves Grants

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Office of Education has approved grants totaling $1,360,000 to several institutions of higher learning in Arkansas.

The institutions and the amounts of the grants are: Arkansas AM&N $270,000; Arkansas College, $125,000; College of the Ozarks, $100,000; Henderson State College, $125,000; John Brown University, $100,000; Ouachita Baptist University, $125,000; Philander Smith College, $250,000 and Southern Baptist College, $125,000.

primary. He died the next day, June 6.

Themes of peace and hope will be reflected in the morning folk mass, the first mass to be held at the new gravesite. Finished six months ago, the site is marked with a simple white wooden cross, a shallow reflecting pool, a terrace of granite stones and a selection of Kennedy's favorite quotations etched into a marble ledge.

McClellan Agrees to TV Debate

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan agreed today to meet Rep. David Pryor in a live television debate under a format he proposed to permit the two "to stand up and look at each other and talk it out."

McClellan proposed that the one-hour debate be held during prime time, after church hours, on Sunday night. The debate would be aired by Little Rock station KATV.

Pryor, who faces McClellan in next Tuesday's runoff election for the Democratic senatorial nomination, had issued the debate challenge, setting out a flexible format for the confrontation.

Energy Resources Too Thin

By MIKE COCHRAN
Associated Press Writer

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A member of the Federal Power Commission said today this country is on the verge of "energy bankruptcy" and remedial action is needed to correct mistakes of the past.

Urging Texas independent oilmen to join in formulating new national energy policies, Rush Moody said:

"The governmental decisions which will direct national policy on gas, and oil and imports for years to come are still unmade. You deserve a voice in those decisions, and you remain silent at your own peril."

Moody, who practiced law in Midland, Tex., before appointment to the power commission, told the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association what the FPC can and cannot do policywise and declared:

Tax Reform Is Tied to Debt Ceiling?

By EDMOND LeBRETON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress was urged today not to give President Nixon's administration the $15-billion increase in borrowing power it seeks without tying to it provisions for review and reform of the income tax system.

Rep. Henry S. Reuss, D-Wis., and Mitchell Rogovin, speaking for the self-styled citizens' lobby, Common Cause, gave the advice in testimony to the House Ways and Means Committee.

It runs directly counter to the expressed wishes of the administration, which told the committee Monday it does not favor combining tax reform and a debt ceiling raise now, but would be prepared to cooperate next year in a review of tax loopholes.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., author of a bill that would force a review of some 42 tax preferences by bringing them up for renewal over a three-year period, also has indicated he would prefer to have the matter dealt with apart from the issue of raising the present $450-billion limit on the public debt.

However, both Reuss and Rogovin urged the committee to tie the two together.

Reuss said if Congress does not get started now on tax reform, the enterprise might be sabotaged. He said moreover that tying the issue to the badly needed borrowing authority would protect it against presidential veto.

Reuss suggested that at least, Congress give immediate attention to repealing broadened depreciation rules and tightening up the provision for minimum tax on persons with large sheltered incomes. These two changes, he said, could bring in an additional $5 billion to $6 billion a year.

Rogovin told the committee the country has been seeking tax reform for more than a decade and the Mills bill "is a major step toward the continuous accountability we seek...in opening the door leading to the tax justice."

It is June, probably the greatest and most satisfying month in the whole year and you are ready for it. You have been out in the sun, you have been exercising more, you are watching your middle because of that new bathing suit and... you are looking for simple, cool, pretty clothes and we have them.

Truthfully, we must have anticipated a warm, long summer from the looks of our stock. It has been years since we had a selection and it makes selling more fun than work.

If you wear size 8 or 10 you are in good hands here because we have lots of them. They are not very expensive so you can have more than one and you will need them. Checks, polka-dots, prints and solid colors, all from nationally known makers.

Are you a custom size? This is similar to the old half-size, but it fits better and looks smarter. AMY ADAMS has really done a thing with these dresses. They look like something that would ordinarily come in size 12 and it is fun to see the look on the face of the customer who wears 14½ to 22½, they can hardly believe it!

We are ready for Summer and hope to help you...

She is pictured with Penny Ingram, and Dr. R. C. Pope, assistant Pathologist at Wadley. Miss Coleman has earned a B.S. Degree in Medical Technology at Southern State College and is presently employed at Hempstead County Memorial Hospital.

THE GENERATION GAP

—by Helen and Sue Bottel

No More Coddling

DEAR HELEN AND SUE:

My sister got married about two years ago. They got in debt over their heads. Her husband talked her into robbing the place where she worked of about $5,000. Naturally, she got caught. Mom got the charges dropped as long as the money was repaid. We borrowed and paid it back. Then my sister's husband asked for a divorce, the grounds being he didn't want to be married to a thief.

Well, they got back together again before he left for the army, and she ended up pregnant. Meanwhile, Mom and Dad were divorced, so my sister ended up living with me and our mother. We paid for the baby, and still take care of her.

Now this guy is back again, and is living off my sister's income, but she doesn't make much, so she's been writing bad checks. Mom took care of them for a while, but she doesn't have the money, and the checks are still bouncing all over the place. Mom is a great person and she and I love my sister, as much as she loves us, but we know there's something wrong with her.

We can't let her go to jail and we can't afford to bail her out. What can we do?—DESPERATE THREE IN THE SAME BOAT DEAR DES:

Bailing out a defective boat only postpones the inevitable, and breaks the bailer's back (or bank account).

Your mother must tell her daughter she's on her own—and if this means the Women's Detention Home, well, perhaps she'll get the therapy she needs while serving her time.—HELEN

DEAR SUE: ...And don't let your mother weaken, or she'll be a patsy all her life. There's time in our lives when we have got to stop depending on our parents—and that time is long past for your sister! Love? Uh-uh!! This is all taking—and being took.—SUE

This guy and I really love each other and wish we could get married, but I'm 17 and he's going in the service—and I'm afraid to tell my Dad because I know he doesn't like him.

We met last weekend and we've known each other five days and four hours, plus a few minutes, but we know it's really true love 'coz even when we almost break up (three times so far) we talk it over and know we couldn't.

Should we "just date," as my Dad wants, or be together all the time until he leaves? I mean insist on getting married.—LORI AND GLENN

DEAR L. AND G.: You met last weekend and you know each other well enough to get married? Come on now—you're too much "in love" to even SEE each other clearly. Think of yourselves as you do about something expensive at a store. If you're smart you don't buy it on the spur of the moment. You wait, keep your cool, find out the details, determine whether you can afford it right now, and if it will "hold up" under everyday pressures.

So date for a while. Study each other's faults as well as your good points, compare your goals. Can you work well together? (With three bust-ups in five days, I wouldn't bet a bundle on it.) Be truthful and be careful!

You may very well be in love (it happens that way sometimes), but infatuation also hits you like a brick—and bounces off just as fast.

Remember, love is something that starts small and grows forever, if it grows at all.—SUE

DEAR HELEN: There's Women's Lib for freedom from men. Why not a Girl's Lib for freedom from parents? Please tell our folks that overprotection is worse than no protection at all. We can't even talk to boys and we're 14!—CALLED TRAMPS

DEAR C.T.: I'll tell your parents they're overprotective if you'll assure me you only want to TALK to boys, not go out on heavy dates.—HELEN

(GOT A PROBLEM? Or a subject for discussion, two-generation style? Direct your questions to either Sue or Helen Bottel—or both, in care of this newspaper, if you want a combination mother-daughter answer.)

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "The Monty Hall Spinok-'Stokin' Fire Brigade," an hour-long special on ABC Monday night, may not have made television history but it was certainly one of the busiest shows on record. It at least demonstrated that Monty Hall isn't just a fellow who turns up every day on ABC's "Let's Make a Deal" with his pockets full of money to give to game show contestants.

The hour opened with a parade of fire engines, and with all the noise and excitement of a four-alarm blaze. Then it cut to a facsimile of a Mexican-American fiesta, complete with tacos and occasional oles and even a stuffed bull, which gave Hall a chance to dress up like a matador and stamp around in a little dance with the natives in their colorful costumes.

There were quick cuts from scene to scene, some primitive comedy by Fred Smoot, and a very cooperative attitude by Cass Elliot, who, given a chance, might have been funny and even without a chance sounded great in her musical numbers.

Hall's first musical variety special had everything from dream sequences to slick gag and it apparently was shot almost entirely on location. And it was probably all pretty wonderful fun for Monty Hall and

Baptist Commentary Attacked

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — More than 13,000 Southern Baptists open their 115th annual meeting today, faced again with a bitter controversy over whether interpretations of the Bible should be liberal or conservative.

The Rev. Gwin Turner of Mar Vista, Calif. said he would introduce a motion during the opening session of the three-day convention that would demand the recall and the re-writing of all 12 volumes of the Broadman Bible Commentary published by the denomination's Sunday School Board.

Turner attacked the commentary in 1970 and again last year, insisting it was too liberal and the delegates twice supported him.

"The entire commentary is built upon the expressed belief ... that the Bible is not the word of God," Turner said.

The Rev. Dr. Carl E. Bates of Charlotte, N.C., who retires after two years as president of the 11.8 - million - member church, said he regretted the conflict.

"The sad thing is that we go over the same ground again and again," he said.

Editorials in at least nine weekly Baptist state papers across the country have opposed Turner's motion.

The Baptist Standard of Texas said the splinter group known as Fellowship of Conservative Southern Baptists which supports Turner, "is out to wreck the fellowship" of the convention.

The Louisiana Baptist Message said, "what they now want is a bonfire-a book burning affair in the city of the Liberty Bell."

A new president will be nominated from the floor this afternoon.

Speculation centers around Mrs. Marie Mathis of Waco, Tex., now president of the denomination's Women's Missionary Union Convention; Owen Cooper of Yazoo City, Miss., an industrialist; Fred Rhodes of Washington, deputy administrator of the Veterans Administration; the Rev. James Coggins of Fort Worth, Tex. and the Rev. John Bisagno of Houston, Tex.

A woman has never headed the Southern Baptists, and the last layman president served in 1959.

Hootie Camp In Full Swing

Most people associate a "hoot" only with owls, but for 300 Conifer Girl Scouts it has been associated with four days of troop camping fun at Hootie Campout, Camp High point near Mena. Four four-day sessions were conducted under the direction of Miss Diane Downey of the Conifer professional staff. Miss Betty McDonald served as the water front director and Mrs. W.R. King of Arkadelphia as first aider. The troop camping event began May 27 and the last session will end June 8.

For many girls this was their first overnight camping experience. Troops spent several troop meeting prior to the event planning menus and making camping equipment and gadgets to take with them. While at camp, all meals were cooked out and ranged from simple one-pot meals to the more complicated kabobs on a stick and cakes baked in box ovens.

Troops attending from Texarkana were 204, Mrs. Dean Barry, leader; 101, Mrs. George McNett, leader; 176, Mrs. Earl Redd, Sr., leader; 175, Mrs. James Stevenson, leader; 128, Mrs. Heywood Loyd, leader; 193, Mrs. Troy Prudhomme, leader; 181, Mrs. W.L. Reeves, leader;

272, Mrs. Gene Lay, leader. Troops attending from Hope were 282, Mrs. Cecil Allen, leader; and 311, Mrs. Gail Sinyard, leader. Troops attending from Camden were 149, Mrs. Alfred Pite, leader; and 146, Mrs. James Hatridge, leader. Troops attending from Ashdown were 127, Mrs. Jack Crawford, leader; 18, Mrs. Charles Cousin, leader. Troop attending from Magnolia was 316, Mrs. Scott McMahan, leader.

Old Desk Yields Look At Past

By FRANK ELLIS

Blytheville Courier News
BLYTHEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Complaints about roads and streets are not new.

O.S. Rollison, a Blytheville businessman, was rummaging through a roltop desk recently when he discovered a letter voicing complaints about roads. The letter was dated April 24, 1904.

A name that looks like S. S. Buford (the ink has faded) is signed to a letter addressed from Paragould to "messrs. Mahan and Satterfield, Blytheville, Ark."

The letter reads:
"Dear Sirs,
"Enclosed please find check for $3.50 for feed bill to 25th.

"Please let me know how the roads are over there now. Can a man get around to work that country any better than when, I was there.

"With best wishes, yours truly, S. S. Buford."

Buford's note was penned on stationery bearing an imprint of the Hotel Amberg in Paragould.

The stationery advised the potential hotel user that the Amberg is "opposite depot, first class accommodations," and boasts of "special attention shown commercial travelers, rates $2.00 per day."

Below a lithograph reproduction of the hotel and adjacent train station is the notation, "your patronage solicited, barber shop and bathroom attached."

In the same desk, Rollison uncovered a penny postcard. The one-cent stamp bearing Ben Franklin's face is still glued to the card.

The card was addressed "Tom W. Jackson, City" and is a card promoting the financial virtues of the late Bank of Blytheville.

The card's front, in color, bears a calendar dated May, 1911, and displays an interior shot of a man opening a purse allowing his coins to fly away.

Indicative of what many consider a more elaborate era of advertising jargon, the card reminds the receiver: "Money has Wings, Cash in the purse takes wings and escapes...but the price of money is toil and sacrifice..."

The bank listed its capital and surplus at $46,000, hardly a sum that would startle today's banking magnates.

And closer to our own day, the desk contained an electric service bill from Ark-Mo Power Company addressed to Bethel A.M.E. Church, 414 W. Ash, Blytheville.

The bill was dated May 12, 1949 and advised the church its bill for the preceding month was the grant total of $1.94 for 32 kilowatt hours.

Charges Election Law Violated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal election watchdog has handed the Justice Department what was termed a "possible violation" of the new election law involving contributions to Hubert H. Humphrey's presidential campaign.

The referral of the case Monday by the Office of Federal Elections was the first such action taken under the 1971 Federal Election Campaign Act.

Double M Western Store, located on Highway 4 North of Hope, has officially opened for business. Don Fuller of Hope is owner. Double M offers a complete line of wearing apparel for men, women and children, and a limited supply of tack room supplies. An interesting item also available is hand creased straw hats.

Grand Opening is scheduled for August. Mary Fuller and Mary Martin will be operating the store and invite you to pay them a visit.

Lions Club Speaker

Dr. James L. Dennis, Vice President for Health Sciences, University of Arkansas, was the guest speaker during the Lions weekly luncheon Monday at the Town and Country.

Dr. Dennis was introduced by John L. Wilson, local attorney, who is a trustee of the University. Several years back Dr. Dennis left the university to become Dean of the medical school for the University of Oklahoma but returned to Arkansas in 1970 to head the entire medical school program at Little Rock.

The speaker said that the medical school in Little Rock was many things to many people because the school offers courses in pharmacy, dentistry, nursing, research and other fields as well as medicine.

In addition there is a three hundred plus bed hospital where students are trained and the hospital serves many people who cannot afford private hospital care.

Dr. Dennis stated that the medical profession was very demanding and only students with the best scholastic records could be accepted. Last year 111 students were accepted from 226 applicants. He said that about one third usually come from the University of Arkansas and the balance from other colleges and universities.

He discussed specialization versus general practice and recognized the need for more general practice, M.D.s.

As an industry, medicine in all its forms, is third dollarwise in the nation exceeded only by manufacturing and agriculture.

Dr. Wallace McDowell, a new dentist in Hope, was the guest of Lion Elmer Smith; Bill Etter Jr. was guest of his father, Lion Bill Etter; and J. L. Frady, National Life Insurance Co., was the guest of Lion Harold Freeman.

Monday's program was arranged by Lion Calvin Smith.

Coleman Endorses Pryor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Jack Coleman of McGehee, unsuccessful congressional candidate, endorsed Monday Congressman David Pryor in the runoff election between Pryor and Sen. John L. McClellan the Democratic senatorial nomination.

Coleman ran last in a four-man race for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the 4th District.

In a news conference, Coleman said he had offered Pryor the use of McGehee headquarters.

Coleman said McClellan had "become inaccessible to his constituents in the past several years." He also said he was convinced that Pryor is concerned with the problems in our local communities and in our rural areas.

Nine Months 6.75

Draws 9 Yr. Sentence

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Joe Dean Barnett, 24, one of three men charged in the room-to-room robbery Jan. 6 of the Coachman's Inn in Little Rock, was sentenced Monday to nine years, with three years suspended.

Barnett had entered a guilty plea to the charges.

He was arrested in Illinois April 7 on federal charges of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

Donald Lee Friend, 36, of Muskogee, Okla., and Robert Treat Lawler, 35, of Oklahoma City, Okla., were captured as they attempted to flee from the motel.

2nd Class Mail Rates Protested

By JAMES PHILLIPS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Postal Rate Commission has performance of Leonard Bernstein's "Mass" at the John F. Kennedy Center Monday night which have been in effect on a temporary basis since May 1971.

The effect for most mail users will be to make permanent the 8-cent cost of mailing a letter, and 11 cents for air-mail letters unless the Postal Service Board of Governors rejects the rate schedule, an action viewed as unlikely.

Nevertheless, the new rate proposals drew immediate criticism from magazine publishers and other mailers who use second-class rates on a broad scale.

The commission says it has substantially cut the temporary rates the partially-independent Postal Service proposed for the publishers and for users of the third-class mail.

Within 30 days the board of governors is expected to act on the proposals which the commission says will save publishers $21.8 million annually over the temporary rates. They expire in 30 days.

The commission replaces Congress as the rate-setting body under the 1970 Postal Reorganization Act, an attempt to put the service on its feet and end recurring deficits.

For second-class mail, the commission recommended a 1.6-cent-per-piece rate instead of the 1.9-cent cost put into effect by the Postal Service temporarily last year.

In New York, Andrew Heiskell, chairman of the board of Time, Inc., which publishes Time and Life magazines, said the new rates "will drive a number of magazines out of business, force others to cut circulation and therefore decrease the flow of information throughout the country."

The temporary rates by law expire 30 days after the Rate Commission issues its findings. The governors of the Postal Service have four alternatives. They can approve the commission's rates, reject them, modify them or permit them to go into effect under protest.

Jackie Visits Kennedy Center

By DONALD SANDERS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Aristotle Onassis attended a performance of Leonard Bernstein's "Mass" at the John F. Kennedy Center Monday night and, her acquaintances said, liked both the opera house and the performance.

This was the former Mrs. Kennedy's first visit to the national cultural center which bears her husband's name, and her first viewing of the Bernstein composition which she asked him to compose for the opening of the Kennedy Center last Sept. 8.

Bernstein told a reporter after the performance that Mrs. Onassis seemed to like the work, but made no specific comment.

She entered the center, as do most visitors, through the Hall of Nations, a huge corridor hung with the flags of more than 100 countries, and—turning a corner—saw for the first time a six-foot-high bust of her late husband, sculptured by Robert Berks.

Mrs. Roger L. Stevens, whose husband is chairman of the board of trustees of the center and who shared a box with Mrs. Onassis, said the former Mrs. Kennedy declined to comment on the bust.

Mrs. Onassis wended her way down the stairs at the opera house and went backstage after the performance to greet some of the members of the 200-person cast.

The widow of the 35th president had been expected to appear when the center opened last September, but she declined the invitation at the last minute on grounds that her appearance would arouse intense emotional excitement among the audience.

Monday night's performance was perhaps better than those which opened the center to sell-out crowds last September. The cast was essentially the same, with direction again by Gordon Davidson, conducting by Maurice Peress and choreography by Alvin Ailey, but the score and the direction had been polished.

Swede Attacks U.S. Policies

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD
Associated Press Writer

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Premier Olof Palme of Sweden arraigned the United States before the U.N. conference on the human environment today for what its military forces have done to Vietnam.

"The immense destruction brought about by indiscriminate bombing, by large-scale use of bulldozers and herbicides is an outrage sometimes described as ecocide which requires urgent international attention," Palme declared.

He did not mention the United States by name, but since only the United States has been bombing and using bulldozers and herbicides in Vietnam, it was apparent which nation he was talking about.

Such an attack was anticipated Monday by Russell Train, chairman of the U.S. delegation to the conference, who told newsmen that questions of armaments, bacteriological and chemical warfare were subjects for "another forum."

But Palme said while "work for disarmament and peace must be viewed in a long perspective, it is of paramount importance that ecological warfare cease immediately."

New Ford Cars Are Delayed Week

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. has announced a one-week postponement of its introduction of 1973 model passenger cars because of government antipollution regulations.

Introduction dates on Ford's 1973 trucks will be delayed two weeks, according to Board Chairman Henry Ford II and President Lee Iacocca.

In a joint statement Monday, they said the auto company would extend its production period for 1972 models in North America.

The announcement appeared to ease fears that Ford might have to shut down assembly plants.

Ford said the 1973 cars will be introduced Sept. 22, instead of Sept. 15, while the truck introduction date has been set back from Sept. 15 to Sept. 29.

Last week, Environmental Protection Administrator William Ruckelshaus said he would allow Ford to produce and ship its 1973 cars provided initial tests indicated they would meet federal emission control standards in full-scale testing.

Ruckelshaus said all of Ford's 1973 test vehicles had received unscheduled, unauthorized and unreported maintenance to a degree that made the test data unacceptable for certification.

Ford and Iacocca complained that they were being required to meet stricter standards than competitors.

Told the boss we wouldn't stand for any more work, and he agreed. Said we'd better spend more time at our desk.

We are indebted to Eddy Kantar and the American Contract Bridge League Bulletin for today's hand.

South has a real problem at trick one. Which hand You can see that the lead was a singleton and that the winning play is to win in dummy but Kantar points out that a lead from queen-jack small or queen-jack-two small is more likely than a singleton or doubleton queen. You agree with Eddy and win in your hand.

Then you attack spades. East wins the first spade and leads a heart. West ruffs and returns a club and eventually you have to lose a heart and the ace of diamonds for down one.

Tough luck! Or was it bad play?

It was bad play. South should have taken out a little insurance after winning that first heart in his own hand. He should have cashed the ace and king of clubs!

Now let East rise with his ace of spades and give his partner a heart ruff. It won't do the defense a bit of good. West will ruff the heart for the second defensive trick.

Then if he leads a club South will ruff in either hand and discard a heart from the other one. If he leads a diamond South will eventually discard dummy's nine of hearts on his third diamond. Either way the contract is home.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT # 55

(Proposed by the General Assembly)

To be voted on at the General Election on

November 7, 1972

FOR A PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT RELATING TO THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH OF GOVERNMENT. BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND BY THE SENATE, A MAJORITY OF ALL THE MEMBERS ELECTED TO EACH HOUSE AGREEING THERETO:

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to wit:

LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

COMPOSITION OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SECTION 1. The Legislative power shall be vested in a General Assembly, which shall consist of a House of Representatives of one hundred members and a Senate of thirty-five members, but the people reserve to themselves the powers of initiative and referendum.

QUALIFICATIONS, EXCLUSION, AND EXPIRATION

SECTION 2. (a) At the time of election a member of the General Assembly shall be a registered voter and shall have been a resident of the State for two years immediately preceding such election and of the district from which he is elected for six months immediately preceding such election. When elected, Representatives shall be at least twenty-one years of age and Senators shall be at least twenty-five years of age.

LEGISLATIVE DISTRICTS

SECTION 3. The State shall be divided into as many House districts as there are Representatives and as many Senate districts as there are Senators. Only one member shall be elected by the voters of each district. Districts shall consist of compact and contiguous territory and shall be as nearly equal in population as practicable. The population of each district for the purpose of representation shall not include inmates of prisons, hospitals for the mentally ill, or similar institutions. In determining representation, adjustments shall be made for persons counted in the federal census who were not legal residents of the districts where they were counted.

BOARD OF APPOINTMENT

SECTION 4. (a) A Board of Appointment is established and shall consist of the Governor, who shall be chairman, the Attorney General, the Secretary of State, and two persons not members of the General Assembly, one named by the House of Representatives and one by the Senate at the regular session held next following the biennial general election. If a vacancy occurs when the General Assembly is not in session, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment, for the remainder of the term, by the Speaker of the House or the President of the Senate, as the case may be. The Board of Appointment shall divide the State into House and Senate districts immediately following each decennial federal census and shall, so far as practicable, observe county and municipal boundaries in establishing such districts.

(b) The reapportionment shall be completed within ninety days after the official census population figures are released by the United States. The report of the Board shall be filed with the Secretary of State, setting forth the population and boundaries of each House and Senate district. This apportionment shall be effective thirty days after filing unless action for revision is commenced in the Supreme Court within that period.

(c) The Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction of any action filed by a qualified elector to compel the Board of Appointment to perform its duties, or to revise any arbitrary action or abuse of discretion of the Board in making the apportionment. These proceedings shall have precedence over any other business before the Court. If a revision is decreed by the Court, a certified copy of its judgment shall be transmitted to the Secretary of State and shall be the apportionment.

ELECTION AND TERMS

SECTION 5. Members of the General Assembly shall be elected at general elections. Their terms shall begin on January 1 following the date of their election. The terms of Representatives shall be two years and of Senators four years. The Senate shall be divided so that as nearly as possible one-half shall be elected every two years. At the next regular session following any decennial reapportionment, the newly elected Senators shall determine by lot which of them shall serve for four years and which of them shall serve for two years in order to maintain a ratio. No such determination shall be made after any other reapportionment.

VACANCIES

SECTION 6. Vacancies in the General Assembly shall be filled for the unexpired term as provided by law, or if no provision be made by law, by appointment by the Governor.

COMPENSATION

SECTION 7. The General Assembly shall fix its members' salaries and the compensation of their offices. The General Assembly shall fix the salaries until the same shall be approved at two consecutive regular sessions.

LEGISLATIVE IMMUNITY

SECTION 8. Members of the General Assembly shall not be subject to arrest in any other place for a crime committed in the discharge of their official duties.

Members attending, going to, or returning from legislative sessions are not subject to civil process and are privileged from arrest except for felony or breach of the peace.

REGULAR SESSIONS

SECTION 9. Unless otherwise provided by law, the General Assembly shall meet biennially in regular session on the second Monday in January at the seat of government. Regular sessions, whether biennial or annual, shall last no longer than sixty consecutive days unless extended by a vote of three-fifths of the total membership of each house.

SPECIAL SESSIONS

SECTION 10. (a) Three-fifths of the total membership of each house may call a special session, not exceeding thirty consecutive days, by signing a document specifying the purposes of the session.

(b) The Governor may call the General Assembly into special session by proclamation, which shall specify the purposes of the session. (c) No business, other than that specified in the call, shall be transacted until action has been taken on the purposes specified. Thereafter the General Assembly may, by a roll-call vote of three-fifths of the total membership of each house, remain in session not exceeding an additional thirty days, during which it may consider other matters.

ADJOURNMENT

SECTION 11. If the two houses of the General Assembly disagree as to the time of adjournment, and such disagreement is certified to the Governor by the presiding officers of the two houses, the Governor may adjourn them.

ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURE

SECTION 12. Rules

(a) Each house of the General Assembly shall adopt rules of procedure and keep a journal of its proceedings.

Quorum

(b) A majority of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and may compel attendance of absent members.

Presiding Officers

(c) The House of Representatives shall choose a Speaker and the Senate shall choose a President Pro Tempore from their respective members.

Open Meetings

(d) All meetings of the General Assembly and of its committees shall be open. The vote of each member of the General Assembly and of its committees on any substantive question shall be recorded and made public.

Interim Committees

(e) Interim committees of the General Assembly, including a legislative council and other joint committees, may be established.

Subpoena

(f) Each house shall by majority vote have the power to compel by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and production of documents and other material on matters relating to pending or proposed legislation.

FORM OF BILLS

SECTION 13. The General Assembly shall enact no law except by bill, and every bill shall be confined to one subject, unless it codifies, revises, or arranges existing laws. The enacting clause shall read: "BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS."

SECTION 14. The General Assembly shall establish the procedure for enactment of bills into law. No bill shall become law unless it has been reproduced and placed upon the desks of the members in the house considering such bill at least three days prior to passage, read at least by title in each house on three separate days, and approved by a majority of the total membership of each house, unless a larger percentage of such membership shall be required in this Constitution. No bill shall be so altered or amended as to change its original purpose.

The vote on the final passage of all bills shall be entered in the journal. The General Assembly shall provide for the publication of all acts.

REVIVAL, AMENDMENT, OR EXTENSION OF LAWS

SECTION 15. No law shall be revised, amended, or the provisions thereof extended by reference to its title only, but so much thereof as is revised, amended, or extended shall be re-enacted and published at length.

SECTION 16. (a) When a bill has passed the General Assembly, it shall be presented to the Governor within three days, Sundays excepted, provided that bills passed within three days of adjournment shall be presented within ten days after adjournment. If he signs the bill, it shall become law.

(b) If a bill is presented to the Governor more than ten days before adjournment, it shall become law if it is not vetoed within ten days after such presentation. If a bill is presented to the Governor within ten days before adjournment, it shall become law if not vetoed within ten days after adjournment.

(c) If there is a veto while the General Assembly is in session, the bill shall be returned on or before the following legislative day to the Governor to the house of its origin, together with a statement of his objections. If there is a veto while the General Assembly is not in session, the bill shall be filed with a statement of the Governor's objections in the office of the Secretary of State. The Governor may veto separate items in appropriation bills.

(d) A bill vetoed by the Governor while the General Assembly is in session may be reconsidered by it, and if three-fifths of the total membership of each house vote to override the veto, the vetoed provisions shall become law.

LOCAL OR SPECIAL LAWS

SECTION 17. The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special acts.

LAYS AND INCREASE OF TAXES

SECTION 18. (a) The levy of a tax, or the increase of a rate of tax, shall require the vote of three-fifths of the total membership of each house of the General Assembly.

(b) Laws taxing estates, gifts, or property, or levying a tax on the sale of the assets of the United States, shall not be enacted, nor shall any law be enacted which shall increase taxes as they are presently levied.

laws of this State.

APPROPRIATIONS

SECTION 19. No money shall be drawn from the Treasury except pursuant to specific appropriation made by law, the purpose of which shall be distinctly stated in the bill. The maximum amount which may be drawn shall be specified in dollars. No appropriation shall be for a longer period than two years. The general appropriation bill for any fiscal period shall be passed before any other appropriation bill may be enacted. The general appropriation bill shall contain only appropriations for the ordinary expense of the executive, legislative, and judicial branches of the State. All other appropriations shall be made by separate bills, each embracing only one subject. No appropriation shall be made except upon affirmative vote of three-fifths (3/5) of the total membership of each House of the General Assembly.

LEGAL NOTICE

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT # 56

(Proposed by the General Assembly)

To be voted on at the General Election on

November 7, 1972

FOR A PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO PROVIDE THAT THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH OF GOVERNMENT SHALL BE ELECTED FOR FOUR-YEAR TERMS, TO PROVIDE THAT A GOVERNOR ELECTED FOR A FOUR-YEAR TERM SHALL BE ELIGIBLE TO SUCCEED HIMSELF, TO ESTABLISH THE COMPENSATION OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICERS, AND TO PROVIDE THAT THE SALARIES OF VARIOUS COUNTY OFFICERS SHALL BE FIXED BY LAW.

SECTION 1. It is resolved by the Senate and by the House of Representatives, a majority of all members elected to each house agreeing thereto:

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Senators and Representatives, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to wit:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of Article 6 of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 1. The Executive Department of this State shall consist of a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer of State, Auditor of State, Attorney General, and Commissioner of State Lands, all of whom shall keep their offices at the seat of Government, and hold their offices for the term of four (4) years and until their successors are elected and qualified. Provided that no person elected to a four-year term as Governor shall be eligible for election to succeed himself to such office."

Provided, further, that upon the filing of a petition with the Secretary of State, by not less than eight percent (8%) of the qualified electors of this State, as determined by the total number of votes cast for all candidates for the Office of Governor in the last preceding general election, petitioning that any of the elected officials of the executive department of this State be recalled, the Governor shall call a special election to be held not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days from the date of filing of said petition at which the qualified electors of the State shall determine whether said officials shall be recalled. If the petitioners request a recall of the Governor, the special election shall be called by proclamation of the Secretary of State. If at said special election, a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon vote for recall of the official, said official shall be deemed removed from the office from the date of said election, and the vacancy in such office shall be filled in the manner provided by law.

SECTION 2. The annual salaries of the various State officers, which shall be paid in monthly installments, shall be as follows:

The Governor, the sum of $25,000.00; the Lieutenant Governor, the sum of $7,500.00; the Secretary of State, the sum of $12,500.00; the Treasurer of State, the sum of $12,500.00; the Auditor of State, the sum of $12,500.00; the Attorney General, the sum of $15,000.00; and the Commissioner of State Lands, the sum of $12,500.00.

SECTION 3. Section 23 of Article 19 of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 23. The salaries of the various county officers shall be as fixed by law, but in no event shall such salary, perquisites of office, fees or other compensation of any such county officer exceed $10,000 annually."

HASKELL JONES

In a program arranged for by Rotarian Vic Cobb, Haskell Jones, manager of Radio Station KXAR and chairman of Hope's Centennial Committee, spoke to the Hope Rotary Club on Friday, June 2 at the Town and Country.

He outlined plans for the observance of Hope's 100 years as an incorporated town. The anniversary date is April 6, 1975, but a special event is planned each month from September 1974 through August 1975. This year-long celebration will highlight different aspects of living in Hope—agricultural, industrial, historical, religious, musical.

The administration committees were named, and the speaker presented a money-raising plan, "$100 for Hope's 100 years" to be stretched over a 4-year period. This would amount to only about $2 a month for anyone wishing to take part.

Dr. Sam Strong, club president, welcomed the members and three guests, Herman Hoffman of Frankfort, Main, West Germany, Fred Spears of Tulsa, Okla., and Sammy Strong.

The next meeting of the caucus will be July 8 in Miami, two days prior to the opening of the National Democratic Convention.

Bumpers Says No To Being Running Mate

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers ruled out Monday a possibility that he would consider being the Democrats' vice presidential nominee this year.

"I would not consider being the running mate," Bumpers told the Arkansas Democrat. "I'm happy where I am and I don't really think the running mate will be all that important."

The governor also said that Sen. George McGovern, as the Democrats' presidential nominee, would have trouble carrying the South against President Nixon even if a Southern were his running mate.

Bumpers said that a Southern vice presidential candidate would help McGovern but he said "it would depend partially on who it is."

He said most Democratic governors now thought McGovern was a sure bet for the nomination, but that "there are a few of us who disagree."

Bumpers was elected chairman Monday of the caucus, succeeding Gov. Marvin Mandel of Maryland.

The next meeting of the caucus will be July 8 in Miami, two days prior to the opening of the National Democratic Convention.
